

Chapter 7

After showering and getting changed we headed to the lido deck for the back rub. I decided on wearing a strapless bra and little red shorts. I also wore a red top which fell down my arm revealing my shoulders. I thought my shoulders were a sexy part of my body. I chose to wear red flip flops. Sacha had wore shorts also and a bikini top with a loose top on top with no sleeves. We looked on deck and saw the stage set with a couch and a bed. "Oh my god what have the guys got in store for the lucky ladies" I said to Sacha taking a drink from my cocktail. "No idea but it looks sexy up there" she replied laughing. "Bet Donnie uses his back rub on you already, how lucky are you" I replied. "Oh he does and it's makes me hot just thinking about it" she replied blushing. "Just bare in mind these ladies don't get what you get and enjoy this" I replied. "Hey I'm cool with this" she replied. Toni didn't realise I had spoken to Donnie about this and he was gonna get her up there with him. She needed cheering up after the whole Joe thing and Donnie said Joe would be watching and he was gonna show him what he was missing. Donnie took to the stage and the women went crazy. When he spoke I knew women would get wet from his voice. "Oh my god Sacha that voice" I said smiling at her. "I know imagine that one on one and you can see why I couldn't hold back no more. Donnie looked over towards us as he spoke to the crowd. I just wish Joe would look at me. I noticed him on the upper deck watching with the other guys. My smile dropped and I gave out a long breath. He was killing me right now. After last night I really hoped something more would of happened for us. "Hey there what's with the long sad face? I heard Donnie call over. I looked at Sacha and Donnie said "yes I'm talking to you". I pointed to myself and he nodded. "Get that sexy ass up here" he called. I shook my head "what is Donnie doing? I asked Sacha. "Looks like he wants you up there go and have some fun". "Come on babe your killing me up here". I shrugged my shoulders and headed towards stage. I walked up the stairs and Donnie took my hand. "Now how could I resist a body like that" he said in his sexy voice. I smiled shyly at him. "Now what's your name? He asked. "Toni" I replied playing along that Donnie didn't know me. What the hell was Donnie playing at. Joe thought to himself as he noticed him pick Toni out of the crowd, did every guy in the band want to do her. Shit he should of stayed the whole night with her and explained that his own marriage had fell apart too. She looked hot in the red she was wearing and she was going to be his lady in red and no one else's.

"So Toni take a seat over there and let's get you blindfolded" he said guiding me over to the couch. I took a sneaky look over at Joe and I couldn't work out his expression. Donnie placed the blind fold on me and I felt the couch dip as he made his way behind me. I felt his legs on either side of my body and waited in anticipation of what was to come. Damn he was hot and I had a crush on him too. But I backed off to let Sacha have him, she adored the guy. "Okay crunch lets have a song" he said into the mike and I felt his hands guide my top down further. The song was real raunchy and I felt Donnie's hands all over my body. I smiled enjoying this moment. He pulled my top down further. The song was let me lick you up and down. Donnie was doing exactly that and I was getting more than a little turned on right now. I felt his face beside mine and he nibbled my ear "Donnie you really don't wanna do that right now" I replied. He giggled in my ear and said "relax I'm puttin on a show and Joe is getting the idea right now" he replied, kissing down my neck. I smiled more and could hear the ladies going wild. It felt great to just feel someone touch you, not knowing where they were going to touch next. I felt Donnie move from the couch and waited. I was feeling all goose bumpy at that moment. He was between my legs right now and taking off my flip flops . Oh my I hoped he wasn't gonna suck my toes I loved that and knew I wouldn't be able to stop myself from moaning if he did. But Donnie licked up my foot and leg and man that felt good. He pulled my legs further apart and I felt his groin next to mine, as he leant further towards me. He kissed me on the lips and it felt good. "Please Donnie stop" I whispered. He smiled at me and leant to my ear and whispered "I think it's worked he is officially pissed, and I couldn't resist it, if I wasn't so into Sacha I would love to be doing this for real". "I'm so turned on right now, I'm gonna need a shower to cool down" I giggled. He kissed me on the lips again and pulled me up to stand. He guided my hands to his butt and pulled me close. The crowd were going crazy. I hoped Sacha was still cool with this cause I was feeling a little guilty that I was enjoying this so much. He grinded into me and I noticed he was turned on too. We slow danced for a while. I pinched his butt and the ladies screamed. He whispered to me "I think I'm enjoying this too much get Sacha to come to my room after this". "I will do Donnie" I whispered back. He pulled away and removed my blindfold. I blinked getting used to the light again. He kissed me on the cheek and guided me to the steps. I took a glance at Joe and he looked miffed. God I loved that guy, I hope we could talk soon. I looked away has he caught my eye and headed back to Sacha. She was smiling at me. "Girl Joe looked pissed right then, Donnie deffo hit his spot" "he wants you to go to his room after this, he needs you girl" I replied smiling. "He's gonna get it good and pass me that blindfold, I'm gonna show him just what it feels like" she giggled has I handed her my blindfold. I'm gonna go get a drink" I said smiling for the first time without being persuaded too. I walked up to VIP and got a drink. I felt an arm round my waist and turned around . Joe was stood there next to me. I looked into his eyes and felt warm. "I'm sorry Toni, can we talk? I looked down and he pulled my chin up "please I need to explain" he begged me. "Okay Joe "I replied. He guided me back to our rooms. I got my key card and let him in.
