

While you and Danny are out gallivanting threw Miami putting everything in motion for the party, Jon finds himself with a thousand thoughts and questions running threw his mind. He decides your sister is the best person to talk to in order to get the information he needs. He calls Karen's cell phone to see if she is busy. She tells him not until around 2. He asks if he can swing by the office to talk to her, she tells him that it is not a problem. Karen figures it is about legal advice Jon never involves her or Danny for that matter into his personal life.

He walks through the doors of the office, and Stacey tells him go on back Ms. Morris is waiting on you. Jon walks the halls leading to Karen's office trying to figure out how to start the conversation. How is he going to tell Karen he is falling for you hard? He finally decides he will start with small talk about the party, and then maybe he can get useful information for Danny. Jon knocks on the door and Karen answers it and says "Come on in Jon, Is everything ok?" Jon replies "thing are going good, I was just bored sitting at the house." Karen looks at him and can tell something is weighing heavily on his mind. So she asks again "what is it you need to talk about Jon, I can tell by looking at you something is eating at you, and I know it isn't music related because the next tour isn't scheduled yet." Jon has a somber look on his face and replies "I really don't know how to explain it or even what to do." Karen tells Jon "I can't help with it if I do not know what t is." Jon smiles and replies "when you are right your right. The it in question is your sister, I really like her a lot, but I know she will be leaving to go back to Ohio soon, and well I know.... Before Jon can finish his sentence Karen interrupts and says, "Missiey will only be going back to Ohio to get her stuff, and that's if me and Danny don't just hire a moving company to go get it. I gave Robert and Stacey there notices that there employment would be ending and Missiey is going to be my new receptionist." Jon is grinning from ear to ear and says "No one said anything about that." Karen replies "I know because I'm trying to get Marin.... I mean the stalking case done and over with before Missiey starts." Jon's eyes are the size of pancakes as he yells "Marina is the Stalker!" Karen says "Jon that cannot leave this office, I consider you family and I let it slip, I won't even tell Missiey or Danny who it is." Jon replies "now everything makes sense there but I still need help with your sister." Karen looks are Jon and giggles "well first I have to know what you want to establish, is it friendship, friends with benefits, or something more." Jon replies "Karen you know me well enough that shouldn't be a question, I want it all with her the house with the picket fence, kids, and dog, the whole kit and caboodle." Karen gets up from her desk and sits in the seat next to Jon holding his hand and says "Jon if that is what you want I can tell you how to go about trying to start a relationship with her but the rest will be on you. I can tell you though she likes you a lot and was checking out your ass when we pulled into the restaurant last night." Jon's face turns bright red and he says "how do I win her over I have to know?" Karen looks at Jon sincerely and says "I will tell you how Danny won me over and how he make me fall in love with him all over again on a regular basis. One night Danny had asked me to dinner and after dinner he asked if I wanted to return to his place to go for a walk on the beach I agreed, and he pulled out a pair of flip flops and said "I was hoping you would say yes. I got these for you because they would be more comfortable on the beach than heels." He bought them not knowing if I would even say yes to him. Every year on the anniversary of that walk he buys me flip flops, I know that he is going to do it, but it still makes me melt, Friday I will be getting new flip flops again. It is something that means nothing to anyone else only to me and him. You have two advantages Danny didn't have, one being me the other one you are in the same room as her. Jon, order her roses and have them sitting on the dresser with a card that says thinking of you, just something to let her know you like her.” Jon replies, “I think she knows I like her, I just don’t think she knows how much I like her, and I don’t want her to think I am being pushy.” Karen replies “Jon, you could never be pushy it’s not in your nature, but if you don’t tell her she won’t know.” Jon stands up and says “thank you so much Karen, I have a plan now. I will see you back at the house.” Karen stands up and gives Jon a friendly hug and says “not a problem Jon just be yourself and it will all fall into place.”

Jon leaves Karen’s office and calls Danny to ask how long Danny and Missiey would be gone. Danny tells him we are just now leaving the jewelry store, now we have to go to catering company and I have to find the perfect pair of flip flops.” Jon laughs and says “Ok that is fine I just have something planned for Missiey and I didn’t want her walking in during the middle of me setting it up.” Danny replies “I have to pick up my dad at 5 so I figure we will be back around 6, and I will start dinner and we will all eat in the dining room so you have all the time you need Jon.” Jon tells Danny thank you and ends the call.

Jon heads to the nearest flower shop and buys 3 dozen roses, 1 dozen red, 1 dozen yellow, and one dozen dyed green. Then lady ask if he wanted them in vases together or separate he tells her he would like them in separate vases and if she could place them in a box so he could take them with him in the car. They florist tells him that it is not a problem and ask why the strange color group. He replies “there is a girl I like and I am going to play 20 questions and the color of the roses dictates the answer.” The florist is confused and does not even reply. Jon pays for the roses and leaves the store.
